BOOMER ESIASON FOUNDATION

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THE SILENT AUCTION

The two close-out times for the silent auction will be announced throughout the program and will be determined that evening.

After each respective closeout, all bidding information will be computed for close-out. All winning information is then tallied the winners names will be posted on a computer so that guests will know who won the items. All guests should check the computer to see if they won and then proceed to our auction close-out area to pay for all items. All items can be picked up at the auction area. We ask that you show your receipt to claim your items!

The foundation staff and volunteers will be at the silent auction area until closing, should you want to leave your items until your departure.

- ★ All proceeds benefit the Boomer Esiason Foundation.
- ★ All bidders will be assigned a bidder number prior to the event. If you don't have a number assigned to your table place card, we ask that you come to the silent auction close-out area and register so that you may place your bid.
- ★ All items must meet the Minimum Opening Bid which is prominently displayed on each silent auction sheet.
- ★ All items must meet the bidding increments as noted on each silent auction sheet.
- ★ All items must be paid for and taken the night of the event unless other arrangements have been made.
- ★ Items can be shipped from the foundation offices after the event. All items will be shipped via express shipping services and all charges incurred will be the SOLE RESPONSIBILITY OF THE WINNER. There will be no exceptions to this policy.
- ★ All certificates for golf outings, trips and special events are bound by the terms listed on the certificates. The foundation assumes no responsibility for missed dates, lost certificates or scheduling conflicts. Each winner must follow instructions outlined on the certificates.
